Murphy, at BC Criticizes U.S. for 'Leaping' on UN

Boston College yesterday conferred seven honorary doctorates and 1447 degrees in course before an audience of 10,000 in Shea Stadium as two national dignitaries discussed the role of this nation in world affairs.

The commencement address was delivered by Robert D. Murphy, former Undersecretary of State. A call for American aid to millions in new nations who lack minimum health standards was made in an interview by Abraham Ribicoff.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

GET HONOR DEGREES

Murphy and Ribicoff were among the seven honorary degree recipients who were welcomed to the commencement by Cardinal Cushing.

Other honorary doctorates were awarded Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Dr. Edward Teller, noted atomic scientist; U. S. District Judge Anthony Julian of Massachusetts; the Rt. Rev. Robert J. Sennott, chancellor of the Catholic archdiocese of Boston, and Louis R. Papp, president of the Perini Corp.
